

AFFORDABLE HOUSING FINANCE

November 16, 2015

NYC Housing Partnership Names CFO

Marie C. Iammatteo has joined the NYC Housing Partnership as CFO, a new position.

Marie C. Iammatteo

The nonprofit serves as an intermediary for the development of affordable workforce housing in New York City. It assists in the development, promotion, and revitalization of affordable homeownership and rental housing through an array of specialized programs and services.

Iammatteo joins the Housing Partnership from Hope Community, an East Harlem-based nonprofit affordable housing organization, where she served as CFO. Prior to that, she had been vice president of finance at the Swerdlow Real Estate Group, a private Florida-based company involved in a broad range of development, management, leasing, and ownership activities.