

REAL ESTATE WEEKLY

June 7, 2016

Carl Hum Elected to Housing Partnership Board

Carl Hum has been elected to the Board of Directors of the NYC Housing Partnership Development Corporation.

Hum is Senior Vice President for Management Services and Government Affairs at the Real Estate Board of New York.

He previously served as President and CEO of the Brooklyn Chamber of Commerce. Prior to joining the Chamber, Hum was appointed head of the Mayor's Office of Industrial and Manufacturing Businesses by Mayor Michael R. Bloomberg.

Earlier, as Vice President for Policy and Programs at Asian Americans Advancing Justice in Washington, DC, he led the organization's advocacy and research activities.

He served as Executive Director of the New York City Districting Commission.

Hum was also Special Counsel for Intergovernmental Affairs and Deputy General Counsel at the NYC Department of Small Business Services, where he chaired a transition team that successfully merged the former Department of Employment with the Department of Small Business Services.

Earlier in his career, he was Assistant District Attorney at the New York County District Attorney's Office.

Hum holds a BA from Wesleyan University of Connecticut, and a JD from Fordham University School of Law.