NYC Housing Partnership Appoint EVP

By Donna Kimura

Esther Toporovsky has joined the NYC Housing Partnership as executive vice president, a new position at the nonprofit intermediary for the development of new and rehabilitated affordable housing.

She recently served as senior program director of Green Communities at Enterprise Community Partners, where she provided strategic oversight of innovative green capital initiatives and business models for community development. She worked with Enterprise's Structured Finance, Loan Fund, Bellwether Mortgage and Asset Management teams on green financing solutions. She directly managed the Enterprise Green Multifamily Retrofit and Renewable Energy programs.

For four decades, the Housing Partnership has facilitated partnerships among private sector developers and financial institutions and City, State and Federal agencies, resulting in the development of over 60,000 affordable homes.
