NYC Housing Partnership Names General Counsel

Theresa Omansky has been appointed general counsel at the New York City Housing Partnership.

She brings extensive legal experience working on affordable housing transactions utilizing tax-exempt bond financing, tax credit allocations and acquisition, construction, and permanent financing.

Prior to joining the Housing Partnership, Omansky was an associate counsel at the Federal Home Loan Bank of New York (FHLBNY), where she provided legal advice and support on the FHLBNY Affordable Housing Program and to other operational and service departments.

For four decades, the nonprofit Housing Partnership has led relationships among private-sector developers, financial institutions, and city, state, and federal agencies that have created and preserved more than 70,000 low- and moderate-income housing units in the five boroughs, leveraging over $7 billion in private financing and utilized more than $500 million in subsidies for affordable housing.
