NYC Housing Partnership Appoints VP

Debra McAllister has been named a vice president of the nonprofit NYC Housing Partnership Development Corp. She joins the organization from the New York City Department of Citywide Administrative Services (NYCDCAS), where she served as director of acquisitions.

During 18 years at NYCDCAS, McAllister completed over $200 million in real property acquisitions transactions and negotiated 500,000 square feet of commercial leases on behalf of city agencies. She previously worked at the city's Department of Housing Preservation and Development (HPD) from 1987 through 2005, including serving as director of special incentive programs.
